Wendell Farmer's Market

The Wendell Farmers' Market is growing more and more each week.

Fresh

fruits and vegetables, home baked breads, fudge, bird and bat houses and plants are on hand with more items coming. Vendors happily sell out each weekend. Locals have already made it a family tradition to check out the Farmer's Market on Saturday mornings in the Wendell Woman's Club parking lot. Come by between 9 & 12, have a biscuit and a cup of coffee, and chat with your neighbors. Brenda Johnson, a member of the Farmer's Market committee, said the support from the community is wonderful!

Fresh produce from local farmers in a convenient location...it doesn't get any better than that! If you haven't stopped by, you don't know what you're missing.
